Office of Food and Nutrition Services

Child Nutrition Programs are federally funded and administered by the United States Department of Agriculture, the DJS Office of Food and Nutrition Services and the Maryland State Department of Education.

School Breakfast Program

This program provides a nutritionally balanced breakfast to youth each day according to specific age/grade groups and the nutrition standards of The Healthy Hunger- Free Kids Act of 2010.

National School Lunch Program

This program provides a nutritionally balance lunch to youth each day. School lunch menus must meet meal requirements specific to age/grade groups and the nutrition standards of The Healthy Hunger- Free Kids Act of 2010.

Summer Food Service Program

The Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) provides meals and snacks during the summer months when regular school is not in session. School-age children are eligible up through age 18. Meal sites are located throughout the State during summer months. For more information contact the Maryland State Department of Education.

Food Distribution Program

The USDA provides food items to support the National School Lunch Program. The Department of Juvenile Services is eligible to receive USDA foods called “entitlement” foods at a value set by USDA. Donated foods must be of domestic origin. A wide variety of foods are available including cheese, flour and other grain products; meat and poultry; and fruits and vegetables.

Nondiscrimination Statement

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U. S. Department of agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Compliant Form \(AD-3027\) found on line at:

http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and providing in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) – 632-9992. Submit your completed letter to USDA by:
